- Develop skills to critically analyse artworks within their cultural and ecological contexts.
- Encounter art and ways of thinking from Southeast Asia.
- Apply vocabulary and visual analysis strategies to form an interpretation of artworks.

SYLLABUS

Week 1 | Welcome to the course!

In this section, you'll get an overview of the course. Let's start by meeting the team and the artists, exploring their practices, and connecting with fellow learners!

Week 2 | Changing Constants

This week, we will explore how artists Sharon Chin and Art Labor navigate the complex entanglements between changing environment and their communities.

Week 3 | How Things Meet

In this section, we will gain insight into how changing urban and natural landscapes have shaped artist Sopheap Pich's practice and material selection.

Week 4 | In Our Backyard

This week, we will uncover day-to-day ecological encounters of artists Robert Zhao and Sharon Chin, delving into impacts of human activities towards non-human inhabitants co-existing in the same space.

Week 5 | Where do we go from here?

To conclude, we will reflect on what we learned over the past few weeks, we also invite you to consider how environment is not a distant ideal but a lived, complex reality—difficult to define, yet vital to how we understand our world.
